

CIF

International Study Program (ISP)

Places	In 2008 also in Germany (one of 17 countries around the world)	Germany 8 cities take turns to host the program
Organization	Former Participants / Fellows who attended CIP und CIF programs CIF - volunteers	The Child and Youth Welfare Association (AGJ) in Berlin for the German Government together with the program cities
No. of Participants	4 (one group in Stuttgart)	24 (4 – 5 groups in various cities)
Age	24 years and older	24 – 45 years
Profession	professional human service workers with basic training and a minimum of two years of professional experience in social fields	Professional human service workers with basic training and a minimum of two years of profes- sional experience in social fields
Advertising	worldwide	Each year, the responsible Ministry publishes a list for the countries to be invited (preferably (Eastern) European Countries)
Duration	4 weeks	8 weeks
Time	April / May	September / October
Language	English, German appreciated	German required (very good comprehension and speaking skills). Proved through interviews at the German Embassies.
Costs	registration fee 350.00 € domestic travel costs for local trains, trams and busses.	full grants
Intern. group	yes	yes
Host family living	yes	no
Program	Orientation seminar Hospitations Professional Placements Agency visits / field trips Intercultural learning Cultural program together with Universities of Applied Sci- ences	Orientation seminar Hospitations Professional Placements Agency visits / field trips Intercultural learning Cultural program Supervision: AGJ

Hospitations	according to the applications CIF National Branches look for the right match	Provided by the program cities
Deadline	Dec 1	Dec 1
Conditions	None It is recommended to contact the national CIF branch or the contact person in the home country.	Written report for the responsible German Ministry.