1) The location

- The Pavillon is a social-cultural centre in the inner city of Hannover.
- It was founded in 1977 by a citizens initiative.
- Their origins can be found in critical discussions with new social movements in the 1970ies and 1980ies.
- Since then the Pavillon is a multi cultural centre which offers a broad variety of cultural events and performances such as concerts, theatre, comedy, cabaret, literature and lectures.
